

GuildHall TEEN ARTS COUNCIL APPLICATION

2018 Teen Arts Council

Be part of the Teen Arts Council (TAC) at Guild Hall and gain valuable experience working behind-the-scenes in an art museum and theater. TAC members meet once weekly to collaboratively generate ideas for Guild Hall programming. TAC members receive an hourly wage for their participation. Once chosen, members are on the council until they graduate High School. Applications are due April 30, 2018 for the September 2018-19 school year and open to high school students 14 or older.

Teen Arts Council Members Gain Valuable Experiences

- Develop leadership and team building skills by working together as a group;
- Advise Guild Hall on engagement strategies for local teens and their families;
- Learn about a range of professional options and career paths, such as curating, theatrical direction, design, marketing, and fundraising; and
- Build your extracurricular work experience while learning about the arts.

Regular Meetings

The Teen Council meets every Tuesday from 3:30pm-5:30pm at Guild Hall from September to June. TAC members are expected to attend all meetings, participate in programs generated by the group, and volunteer at one or more Guild Hall event or program per semester.

Questions?

Please contact Corey Jane Cardoso, Teen Arts Council Coordinator at cjcardoso@guildhall.org.

Availability

Do you participate in extracurricular activities that might interfere with weekly Tuesday meetings? If so, please describe.

Leadership

Because one of your major responsibilities will be planning and promoting programs to other teens, elaborate on ways you could involve teens from your school and community. How have you demonstrated leadership among your peers before?

Skills and Interests

Describe any special skills or interests that you think would be advantageous as a member of the Teen Arts Council at Guild Hall? What other experiences have you had in the arts?

Is there anything else you'd like to tell us?

What else would you like us to know about you? Do you have a favorite work of art? A hidden talent? A story about Guild Hall?

Pitch a creative idea, event or program you would like to produce as a member of the Teen Arts Council.
