GUILD HALL

WE DO IT FOR YOU

OUR MISSION

Guild Hall is the cultural heart of the East End: a museum, performing arts, and education center, founded in 1931.

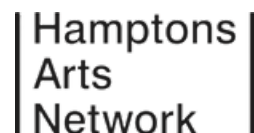

VIDEO BY JOE BRONDO

We invite everyone to experience the endless possibilities of the arts: to open minds to what art can be; inspire creativity and conversation; and have fun.

ABOUT

Guild Hall presents more than 200 programs and hosts 60,000 visitors each year. The Museum mounts eight to ten exhibitions, ranging from the historical to the contemporary, and focuses on artists who have an affiliation with the Hamptons. The Theater produces more than 100 programs—including plays, concerts, dance, screenings, simulcasts, and literary readings—from the classics to new works. In addition to these endeavors, Guild Hall supports the next generation of artists with in-school and on-site Learning & Public Engagement programs.

Guild Hall is a proud member the Hamptons Arts Network.

Guild Hall is a tax-exempt 501c(3) organization and donations are deductible as defined by IRS regulations.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Thank you to all of our patrons and board for seeing us through a most unusual period of accelerated evolution. We have been encouraged to take the lessons learned from the pandemic and envision Guild Hall as an interdisciplinary institution for the 21st century.

To do this, we assembled a team of leading designers to reimagine a new Guild Hall that can accommodate, and even exceed, the expectations of artists today.

Artists have always been the driving force behind Guild Hall's activities. Thank you to artists and patrons alike for supporting Guild Hall, for valuing the critical role of the arts in everyday life, and for being an enthusiastic member of Guild Hall's future.

IMPACT

Guild Hall is at the center of arts and culture on the East End. The 91-year-old institution helps, directly and indirectly, to support dozens of local arts organizations and community groups and contributes to a broader range of how the community presents art. Guild Hall is home to the largest theater in the area, and the performance space is frequently rented to local organizations at subsidized rates. Many of these smaller arts and culture organizations rely on the use of Guild Hall's spaces to support the community in their own ways.

Long Island arts and cultural organizations spend $1.8 billion annually. If we assume that 50% of that spending takes place on the East End, and that Guild Hall is at the center of just 10% of all East End arts activity, Guild Hall accounts for $90 million in economic activity each year.

In 2020, Guild Hall enlisted the expertise HR&A Advisors to conduct a study to quantify our direct and multiplier economic impacts on Suffolk County and tax revenue to Suffolk County and the State of New York from five overarching categories: Guild Hall's capital renovations, operations, Main Street spending, A-Level event visitor spending, and incremental property tax value.

IMPACT

Summary of Economic & Fiscal Impact Findings

- Jobs: 209 construction jobs and 238 year-round and seasonal jobs at Guild Hall and other local businesses
- Wages: $13.4 million in construction wages and $7.8 million annually in year-round and seasonal job wages
- Economic Output (spending): $39.0 million in total economic output from construction spending and $24.5 million annually in economic output from ongoing Guild Hall operations and ancillary visitor spending
- New York State Tax Revenue: $12.0 million in State tax revenue over 20 years
- Suffolk County Tax Revenue: $7.9 million in County tax revenue over 20 years
- Local Property Tax Revenue: $17.8 million in property tax revenue over 20 years generated in the Towns of East Hampton and Southampton

2020 was a year where everyone's plans had to change gears. We were thrilled that Robert Longo helped lead the way with ALL FOR THE HALL a benefit exhibition that brought in over $420,000 in sales from works donated by 60 artists. Guild Hall was the first museum on Long Island to re-open to the public during COVID-19 with safety protocols in place. We expanded our virtual offerings with top-notch programming led by artists such as Shirin Neshat and Renee Cox and hosted over 40 virtual one-on-one studio visits engaging our community artists.

2021 continued to be a challenging year as the pandemic continued. Despite all of the difficulties and obstacles, we were able to present a full year of exhibitions starting with the 83RD ANNUAL ARTIST MEMBERS EXHIBITION, followed by two one-person exhibitions featuring the work of mid-career artists KARIN WAISMAN and ENOC PEREZ. Summer exhibitions included ALEXIS ROCKMAN: SHIPWRECKS, curated by Executive Director Andrea Grover, and ROBERT LONGO: A HISTORY OF THE PRESENT. The fall season featured 90 YEARS: SELECTIONS FROM THE PERMANENT COLLECTION and JEFF MUHS: AN UNCANNY VALLEY. All exhibitions were accompanied by a series of public programs including gallery talks, panel discussions, and film screenings.

LEARNING + PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

2020 can be distilled into three words: innovation, flexibility, and support. Throughout the year, Guild Hall Learning & Public Engagement advanced traditional programs, strengthened community partnerships, and provided creative and financial support to young and seasoned artists at a crucial time.

Guild Hall Learning & Public Engagement curated a "Monster List" of free arts & culture resources, and produced a weekly ART BREAK series, virtually bringing local artists & their families into our patrons' homes with 10-minute art projects, and a Virtual Art Salon series.

In 2021 "GATHER: Conversations led by Black and Indigenous Change-Makers" was established. Guild Hall also welcomed 6 artists, both virtually and in-person, as part of the 2021 Guild House Artist-in-Residence program and 2 individual artists and an artist-collective as part of the 2021 Community Artist-in-Residence.

90TH ANNIVERSARY

In celebration of our 90th anniversary, the GUILD HALL FOR ALL coffee table book was published, featuring 208 pages of photos and stories highlighting the rich history of the institution. The book was edited by Executive Director Andrea Grover and Helen Harrison, and designed by Eileen Boxer, with contributing essays from art historian Phyllis Braff, journalist Bess Rattray, Andrea Grover, and prefaced by Chairman of the Board Marty Cohen, with a foreword penned by former Board President Alec Baldwin. GUILD HALL FOR ALL was generously funded by The Robert David Lion Gardiner Foundation, Roy Lichtenstein Foundation, The Willem de Kooning Foundation, Ninah Lynne, and Gary Adamek, in memory of Ruth Appelhof.

In conjunction with the anniversary, Guild Hall launched a Capital Campaign to renovate its historic facility and campus. Since its opening in 1931, Guild Hall has had a remarkable legacy as the epicenter for art, design, theater, music, film, literary arts, and community in the Hamptons.

FUTURE OF GUILD HALL

Guild Hall has served four generations and introduced audiences to the most storied artists and performers of our time. Now as we approach our centennial, we embark on a state-of-the-art renovation to match the caliber of our artistry for twenty-first-century audiences. Our facility-wide Capital Improvements Project & Campaign includes top-of-the-line physical and technological enhancements to better deliver on our mission as an artist-driven, interdisciplinary institution. These comprehensive enhancements will see the structural and technological upgrade of our grounds and near-century-old building — encompassing the museum, theater, education center, and administrative offices.
