Guild Hall & Jewish Center of the Hamptons Present
EITAN LEVINE: COMEDIAN. WRITER. MENSCH.
Sunday, December 21 at 5:30 PM

December 3, 2025 - East Hampton, NY — Guild Hall (158 Main Street, East Hampton) and Jewish Center of the Hamptons are pleased to present Eitan Levine: Comedian. Writer. Mensch. on Sunday, December 21 at 5:30 PM—a high-energy evening of sharp, quick-witted stand-up from one of today’s most dynamic comedic storytellers. The program will take place in the Hilarie and Mitchell Morgan Theater at Guild Hall, and tickets are $25.

Eitan Levine is known for his rapid-fire humor, deeply observant storytelling, and distinct comedic voice—qualities that have earned him a national following and a steady presence across major media platforms. Often described as a “writer and comedian/human theme park,” Levine’s work spans television, print, digital media, and viral social content.

Levine’s on-screen credits include Jimmy Kimmel LIVE, Late Night with Stephen Colbert, The Daily Show, Extra, Access Hollywood, and The Kelly Clarkson Show. As a writer, he has contributed to The New York Times, New York Magazine (The Cut), Amazon, Sony, and Reader’s Digest, and has collaborated on creative campaigns for brands including Nike, Red Bull, JEEP, Audible, and TruTV.

With more than 150,000 followers across social media platforms, Levine has carved out a niche as a creator of fast-paced, culturally attuned digital comedy. His “Jewish Man on the Street” series—especially the breakout segment “Jewish or Antisemitic”—has garnered more than 28 million views, solidifying his place as a resonant and relevant comedic voice for a new generation.

Audiences and community members are invited to arrive early to visit the Student Art Festival galleries, open from 12-5 PM, and then as a special pre-show moment, participate in a Pop-Up Chanukah presented by Rabbi Josh Franklin, Cantor Debra Stein, Rabbi, and Jewish Center of the Hamptons at 5 PM in Guild Hall’s Boots Lamb Education Center.

ABOUT JEWISH CENTER OF THE HAMPTONS

Jewish Center of the Hamptons is a post-denominational synagogue serving as the Jewish spiritual and cultural oasis on the East End of Long Island, in Manhattan, and beyond. Rooted in Torah, prayer, and acts of loving kindness, the Jewish Center of the Hamptons shares the joy of Jewish traditions and deepens our connections to a rich heritage through Jewish values and a diversity of Jewish voices. In our many avenues of learning, we seek to bring relevance and meaning to our daily lives. We are a center without walls, connected to Israel and the Jewish people wherever they might dwell. We welcome each person regardless of gender, sexual orientation, and race, embracing anyone who chooses to join us on our Jewish journey. As a socially conscious congregation, we dedicate ourselves to mitzvot, fulfilling our obligations to God, and to one another. Visit jcoh.org for more.

ABOUT GUILD HALL

Guild Hall is the cultural heart of the East End: a museum, performing arts, and education center, founded in 1931. We invite everyone to experience the endless possibilities of the arts: to open minds to what art can be; inspire creativity and conversation; and have fun.

Guild Hall has served four generations and introduced audiences to the most storied artists and performers of our time. As we approach our centennial, we have completed a state-of-the-art renovation to match the caliber of our artistry for twenty-first-century audiences. The facility-wide Capital Improvements Project & Campaign includes top-of-the-line physical and technological enhancements to better deliver on our mission as an artist-driven, interdisciplinary institution.
